

Suzy Dickstein

Build a Bigger Business by Becoming a Rave-Worthy Speaker

Sample of "How to Become a Riveting Storyteller" Virtual Presentation

Suzy Dickstein, MBA, is a presentation and business coach for entrepreneurs who want to stop going unnoticed and start being seen as a thought leader.

She works with people who are ready to stand out, be remembered, and make a bigger impact (even if their palms are sweating and knees are knocking while doing it).

She spends a lot of time bicycling around the warmest place in Canada she could find - beautiful Victoria, BC, when she's not reading books on entrepreneurship or scoping out the coolest innovations.

Be uniquely you • Tell riveting stories • Speak with confidence
